INDEX

This is an index of names and places presented throughout this book. Since there is much narrative included in this book, the index attempts to organize the information in a way that is beneficial to the reader. It includes names that are part of the "genealogy proper" as well as names within the narrative throughout the book that are not necessarily part of the genealogy or the lineages. Names in the genealogy proper can be discerned throughout the index as those with surnames in all-capitals and usually include birth-death notations if available. The places and names in normal format are those included in the narrative of the book. There are some names that appear in both and are listed as such.
